Jewellery Studies - ORDER FORM/PRO-FORMA INVOICE

Jewellery Studies is the journal of the Society of Jewellery Historians. It is sent to all members whose subscriptions are fully paid up at the time of publication. Back numbers (except for volume 1) are available and the prices below include postage and packing for UK and Europe (and at surface mail rates for the Americas and Asia - please add an additional £5 per volume for airmail dispatch).

The journal cannot be supplied to personal callers at the Museum. Orders can only be accepted by post and fax.

Volume 1 is now out of print. However copies are still available through the North American distributor, Derek Content, at 33 Church Road, Barnes, LONDON, SW13 9HQ e-mail: DerekContent@aol.com

Payment from Overseas must be made in STERLING either by credit card, cash sent by registered mail or draft on a UK bank (made payable to the Society of Jewellery Historians).
